

How Inclusion Really Works

Sponsored by the

Free and open to the public:

Wednesday, March 19th, 7-9 p.m.

Washtenaw Intermediate School District

1819 South Wagner Road

Ann Arbor, MI 48106

Come to the “How Inclusion Really Works” workshop to learn facts, strategies and tips to help effectively advocate and achieve inclusion for your child in the classroom and school community.

Kelly Orginski will lead the workshop. Kelly has been educating parents across the state of Michigan for the last 7 years. She has worked as a disability rights advocate for the passed 13 years – 7 of those at ACA. She has a wide variety of experiences working on inclusion issues at local, county and statewide levels. Currently, she works for the Arc Michigan – Michigan Alliance for Families. She is a mother of 4 boys, all are fully included, and one receives special education support and service.

Our Mission Statement

To positively impact the education of all students with an emphasis on those with special needs in the Ann Arbor School District by representing students and parents of students needing or receiving special education services, advocating improvements, acting as a resource for our constituents, staff, and administration, creating opportunities for education, reporting regularly, facilitating communication, clarifying process, and creating an actual link between our constituents and the administrators responsible for all aspects of special education in the Ann Arbor district.

Through this mission, the AAPAC will positively impact the education of all students in the Ann Arbor district.
